DEN NEWS
Tiger Cub den

The Tiger Den started their Family Scrapbook. They also went to the Dormont Fire Station.

Wolf den

The Wolf Den covered Safety this month. They hunted and found the emergency exits and fire extinguishers around Dormont Elementary. They also visited the Dormont Police Station.

Bear den

The Bear Den enjoyed playing an uproarious game of Charades as well as worked on their Physical Fitness requirement. We also got a second Asst. Den Leader, Marya Pittaway.

Webelos I den

The Webelos I Den has been working on Traveler and completing Athlete. Chris enjoyed bowling and is looking forward to the Christmas Parade.

Webelos II den

The Webelos II Den visited Troop 65's weekly meeting at Sunset Hills. They visited their Annual Wilderness Survival Camp at Camp Baker in Beaver County. This is where the boys must make their own shelter and sleep in it for the night. Our boys assisted in their Iron Chef Cook-Off competition at camp. They also completed their Engineer and started the Family Member activity pins.

Future Pack Activities and Events

Nov 25 - 6th Annual Ten Commandments Hike

It's a unique and exciting way to embrace the concept of religious tolerance, learn local history, participate in community service & have fun. Cost is $8 per hiker. The fee includes a special patch, hot chocolate along the way, juice at lunch & dessert.

Dec 3 - Dormont Christmas Parade

We will be meeting at the Mt. Lebanon UM Church parking lot at 9:45am. Please, have the boys either dressed up as presents or wearing a Santa hat. We will march to the Church where we will have cookies and hot chocolate waiting for us.

Dec 10 - Christmas Caroling and Gift Presentation - 2 pm - Dormont Place

We will meet in the lobby of Dormont Towers at 1:45 pm. The boys will then present the seniors with their craft projects and sing some favorite holiday tunes.

Dec 17 - Can Trailer - 9 AM - ADULTS ONLY

Each den has an opportunity to earn funds for their activities. We empty the can trailer that sits next to the Borough salt pile, across from Dormont Pool. Adults only and bring gloves.

Dec 18 - Parent/Leader Meeting - 5pm - Dormont UM Church

This is the meeting where the Parents & Leaders meet to plan the Pack's activities. Come attend this important meeting and make an impact with our unit. We are always looking for committee members and volunteers. Invest your special skills and time with us!

Dec 21 - Pack Meeting - 7 pm - Dormont United Methodist Church - Wolf den flag ceremony

This is our Christmas Party meeting. Please bring some cookies or dessert to share. The Pack will provide the drinks. We will also be handing out the rewards for popcorn sales.
